Dear Adam,

I just cannot begin to express my gratitude for all your kindness and help over the past eighteen months. I had found myself pushed against a brick wall with debt; and really had nowhere to turn. I had already consulted a bankruptcy attorney and was overwhelmed by the paper work that would have been necessary to file. I had had a very difficult day taking one collection call after another and was very near tears when I received a call from Scott Wolven. He explained how Corporate Turnaround could help my business and me. He emailed me information immediately and then sent by mail all the necessary information.

Writing that first hardship letter was a real eye-opener for me. I knew we had a lot of debt ($160,000.00 plus) piling up because I wrote the checks and they were getting harder and harder to pay. I also found some of these companies that my husband had signed contracts with had non-cancellation clauses built into the extra fine print and if you missed their deadline by one hour it extended the contract for another year.

Although I had worked in this family business along with my husband I was never in the position to be the one totally responsible for all we had. With the death of my husband in 2005 I had to assume all the responsibilities and my son became my partner in the Corporation. Then we began to notice that we had a lot of shrinkage in the business due to the economy taking a real hard downturn in 2007. We had bank failures in this town forcing a lot of agriculture business into bankruptcy and causing our county alone to have an unemployment rate of well over 21%. All of our operating expenses were doing the annual creep up but the income was going down. We began cutting expenses where we could, and then we cut any unnecessary personnel. I even stopped taking a paycheck for over six months living off my savings just to help the company out.

We are very nearly through this process now...all the big accounts have settled....Thanks for all the hard work of Adam Lang and the staff of Corporate Turnaround. He keeps it real for me and it has been truly a pleasure working with him and the others. Without their help I would not have made it through this process.

Sincerely,

President

Your company's results may vary. Every restructuring has a unique combination of issues and factors, including the length of participation in the program. All of these variables affect individual outcomes. There are no "typical" results. Until a debt is resolved, creditors may continue with their collection efforts, including phone calls and legal action. CT does not provide any legal services or legal advice. There are no time limits for reaching settlements. Some creditors may settle after CT's first set of offers, and others may be resolved later on. Settlement offers range from pennies on the dollar to payment in full.
