Dear Mr. [REDACTED] :

It is nice to have successfully completed our program with Corporate Turnaround. Seems like only yesterday I was struggling to find a way to overcome lenders who were really not there to help when you need them the most! A short sale on a private property does have a strong ripple effect and does impact your business operations, we found that out first hand. I want to thank you for helping us through the maze of issues and hurdles that we had to go through to get us back on our feet and to relieve some of the pressure. We were never late on any loans or Credit lines, or even Credit cards, yet lenders took it upon themselves to make life miserable for those that were forced into short-sales due to the mortgage crises that they caused. An amazing piece of financial history in our country that impacted so many!

Your help in restructuring our debt and helping us deal with lenders has been greatly appreciated. Showing us who to talk to and how to work through the banking maze took a huge amount of pressure off of us. Even dealing with crazy credit collectors who had not even looked into their own files to realize that we had already paid off their loan as agreed! Adam, you make a huge difference in our knowledge and ability to deal with those trying to put undue pressure upon us. We had it coming from all sides, but you help us wade through the quagmire!

Finally, your associates were also very nice and helpful when you were not available, so if I had a question, I did not have to wait a day or two, or a week, to get some help and answers. Thanks again!

Sincerely;
