

Dear Friends of Corporate Turnaround,

November of 2008 I knew I was in trouble. I started receiving letters from my credit card companies stating that my interest rates were doubling and my minimum payments were almost tripling. I had never been late, never missed a payment and this was still happening. I called my creditors, closed all my accounts and tried my best to keep up. I hung in for about a year until I knew I could no longer go it alone. I searched the internet tiring to find help and then I finally found Corporate Turnaround.

I was immediately impressed by their compassion for my situation, I was close to $60,000.00 over my head in credit card debt. They made me feel so much better about my situation, I no longer felt alone.

Adam Lang was assigned to my case, and we immediately came together to try to find answers for my problem. I cannot tell you the times I called him beside myself with emotion, I could hardly take the cruelty of some of these debt collectors. Adam calmly told me to remain calm, and let him deal with these people. I truly can't express how comforted Adam made me feel. Eventually, I learned to listen and promptly directed all calls and invoices to Adam.

Not only did Adam "save" me from the bullying of these debt collectors, he also went threw my sisters breast cancer diagnosis, treatment, and recovery. And in more recent times my divorce, the last few years have been very tough, but without Corporate Turnaround and Adam Lang I don't think I would be sane.

I am very thankful to all of you at Corporate, I not only considered you a business partner, but my friends as well.

Thank you for everything you have done for me and my salon.

TRULY,
