Paramus, NJ 07652

On Friday, October 28th, 2011 I received the news that finally, I had completed my program with Corporate Turnaround and I cannot find the words to express the joy I felt when Adam Lang, my Advocate, informed me that I had just completed what should be my last installment.

Corporate Turnaround is really a company with a heart and my Advocate, Adam Lang, is very special and unique and if it was not for him lifting up my spirits, helping me pull up from "my boot straps" so to speak with regard to always being a true virtual friend, constantly reminding me that the light at the end of the tunnel is now flickering and with a little more push I will be out, always giving me hope and will not let go. Adam was always in good spirits whenever I had to postpone payments and/or when items bounced; he never let me feel down because of my financial hardship. I am unable to convey in words what it feels not to be able to meet at times my weekly responsibility. Adam never let me feel bad or with low esteem during the more than 2 years that I have dealt with him. He is truly a gem of a person with a lot of acumen in managing and guiding people like me who have succumb to financial difficulties.

I became a client of Corporate Turnaround in February of 2009. At first I was very hesitant because of all the stories I had heard about similar companies in this field and also because I had a prior short and bad experience with one of them. From the time I enlisted until today I experienced nothing but good positive feedback from them. I have been in the credit reporting field for 30+ years specializing in real estate and because of the dismal state of real estate that started prior to 9/11 and continued to worsen after that coupled with the downward stock market performance, I lost almost everything and was left with massive debt. Things got so bad, I lost my apartment in foreclosure, were deeply under the water with no hope or sign of relief. Once CT took over that horrible stress began to subside as I did not have to deal with all the nasty people that I was dealing with. CT spoke to the creditors and setup a payment plan. At the time I was doubtful that I could get out of this financial mess. But as time went by things started to take another turn and I know I would have never made it without help from CT and Adam Lang.

Now I am reorganizing and starting fresh, free of debt, something that I did not think was possible and I owe it all to CT and Adam Lang. Again, I want to thank Adam for his patience and hard work, for always treating me with all the respect and diligence due an important client and not just another dispensable client. Congratulations CT for the invaluable service you provide to people like me.

Warm Regards

Your company's results may vary. Every restructuring has a unique combination of issues and factors, including the length of participation in the program. All of these variables affect individual outcomes. There are no "typical" results. Until a debt is resolved, creditors may continue with their collection efforts, including phone calls and legal action. CT does not provide any legal services or legal advice. There are no time limits for reaching settlements. Some creditors may settle after CT's first set of offers, and others may be resolved later on.
