Dearest Adam and the Corporate Turnaround Team,

I wanted to take this opportunity to thank EVERYONE at Corporate Turnaround that had a part in my debt restructuring success. Thanks a million (or maybe 37,000+ -my savings while in the program!).

I came aboard way back in 2005 after speaking with a gentleman named Gary Dorsi. Gary was quite the character. Very knowledgeable and extremely bright. He explained the details of the program and made me feel comfortable with moving forward with your program. I originally entered 6 local vendors and let you guys get after them. Month by month each creditor agreed to a payment arrangement that I could actually afford and I saw my debt begin to evaporate right before my eyes. Everything went so well that I decided to hand over the rest of my debt, which mainly consisted of credit cards. These banks are "a bird of a different feather" alright. Talk about ruthless. They called and called and called in the beginning and not once did they listen to a word I said. It was in one ear and out the other. It was darn right annoying. Eventually after a few weeks they stopped the harassment—THANK GOD. There is nothing worse than some snot nosed little kid calling ME up and telling ME what a bad person I am when they clearly have no idea how tough it is to run a business in a terrible economy and the responsibility that entails. After that nonsense was over, it seems they dropped off the face of the earth. If it wasn't for Adam giving me monthly updates about each account I wouldn't have known they were still around. Eventually all the credit cards came to terms as well and I was on my way to debt freedom.

It may have taken me a few more years to complete the program than I had originally planned on, but that was to no fault of CT. I couldn't exactly fund the program as originally agreed, but they never turned their back on me. Adam Lang always was there to work with my financial ups and downs, and some how he made it work. I can swear he is part magician. He somehow guided me through this tangled web of debt and I couldn't be happier to finally complete it all.

Adam—If not for you I don't know where I would be. I am proud to call you a friend and anytime you are in my neck of the woods, I sure will show you a good time. You deserve it for putting up with me!!!

It sure wasn't easy, but then again What Is? I would recommend CT to anyone who seriously wants to get their business back on track and on the road to financial recovery. They sure know what they are talking about and are as caring and professional a group as you will come across. I owe everything to CT, and once again want to thank them from the bottom of my heart!

THANKS FOR EVERYTHING. YOU GUYS ARE SECOND TO NONE!!!!

With the Deepest Gratitude,

Your company's results may vary. Every restructuring has a unique combination of issues and factors, including the length of participation in the program. All of these variables affect individual outcomes. There are no "typical" results. Until a debt is resolved, creditors may continue with their collection efforts, including phone calls and legal action. Debts may increase until a resolution is reached. There are no time limits for reaching settlements. Some creditors may settle after CT's first set of offers, and others may be resolved later on.
