In April of 2011 I contacted [Redacted] at Corporate Turnaround because my business was in financial trouble. I operate an outfitter business and the economy really started to take a toll on business. In order to keep afloat, I started to use my credit cards to keep the business going. I kept thinking that the economy would pick back up and I could pay back the money I was borrowing but things started to spiral out of control. My interest rates were raised to a very high level and my limits were dropped leaving me with monthly payments I could no longer afford. At this time my debt had risen to $59,000. I was desperate and did not think there was a way out. Corporate Turnaround was able to help me out. I agreed to a monthly payment I could afford and was handed off to [Redacted] who handled my questions and concerns for the remainder of the program.

There were struggles along the way but with persistence and patience I was able to pull this off. The first fear I had to overcome was the feeling of inadequacy or failure for not being able to pay my bills. The second issue was the phone calls that would come from the creditor's, Corporate Turnaround gave me the information I needed to deal with all of these issues and helped to bring my self-confidence back. I was not a deadbeat, just a person in a bind and I was willing to pay my debt instead of filing bankruptcy. I just needed some time and a little cooperation from the creditor's. Corporate Turnaround was able to help me settle my debts for around $19,000. I saved $40,000 in the program and I now run a business that is debt free. I cannot describe the feeling of accomplishment and excitement knowing that I can now operate with money made and not borrowed.

The people behind the scenes at Corporate Turnaround deserve some credit as well. [Redacted] and [Redacted] were the debt managers that secured my settlements. I did not speak with either person along the way but I owe them a thank you for all they did to help me through this. This team is both professional and very good at what they do. The service they provide to business' like mine is invaluable. I can't say that it was always easy but I can say they were with me every step of the way and it is a good feeling to have someone in your corner to help when things get tough. I hope anyone considering this program will just take the step and contact Corporate Turnaround. Your life could turn around just like mine has.
